Ep3C - Nehemiah (1998)

Call to Worship

Gathered together in the square
young and old men and women
certain and seeking slave and free.

Gathered together in the square
they opened the book
read and listened
talked and prayed.

They opened the book
gathered together in the square
and heard the Word of God.

Let us now gather
together
in the square
to open the book
and hear the Word of God.

Invitation to Pardon

Sisters and brothers
As we strive for the greater gifts coming together to open the book God meets us in this place embracing, empowering, and enlivening us as together we read and share the story.
Thanks be to God.
Amen.
